Publishers' Note

THIS book has been prepared solely to meet the needs of the Sunday-school, but when the music of the Sunday-school and that of other religious services will coincide, it may be used elsewhere. The book is based upon the recognition of worship as a vital element in religious education, of music as a means of self-expression which is a fundamental principle in education, and upon the conviction that only that which is worthy to endure in music and hymnology is fitted to be the medium of expression of the faith, the love, the purpose and the experiences of the unfolding life of childhood and youth. Special care has been taken in the selection and arrangement of the hymns. Except in the case of a few standard hymns which are universally sung and into the thought of which many grow early in life, hymns or stanzas which express only the adult experience have been omitted, as also have hymns which refer to occasions outside the sphere of Sunday-school services. Based upon the vision and the experiences of youth, the book will be found rich in hymns of praise, hymns of the spiritual awakening and the developing life, hymns of service for others, and hymns of the heroic life in its twofold aspect of resistance and struggle for righteousness.

A new feature of this book, and one which will commend it to many Sunday-schools, is the section devoted to Selections for the Sunday-School Choir.

The element of worship has been recognized, and to this end a section has been added containing music and scripture arranged for liturgical use, a general order for Sunday-school worship, and several services topically arranged for special occasions.

The thanks of the publishers are due to the following persons who have assisted in the preparation of this book: the Rev. Milton S. Littlefield, Frank E. A. Stoney, M. D., H. Augustine Smith, the Rev. Frank S. Hunnewell and Alexander S. Gibson.

Abide with me	53
Again returns the day of holy rest	12
A glory gilds the sacred page	48
All glory, laud and honor. See Glory praise and honor	92
All hail the power of Jesus' name	109
All is bright and cheerful round us	268
All my heart this night rejoices	285
All things bright and beautiful	272
An angel he floateth the heavens along.	292
Ancient of days	6
Angels from the realms of glory	80
Angel voices ever singing	4
Around the throne of God in heaven	244
Art thou weary, art thou languid	130
As the sun doth daily rise	40
As with gladness men of old	83
Awake my soul, stretch every nerve	195
Away in a manger	72
Believe not those who say	175
Behold, thy King draws near the city.	279
Beneath the cross of Jesus	98
Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine	167
Blest be the tie that binds	201
Book of grace, and book of glory	50
Break, Thou, the bread of life	149
Brightly gleams our banner	111
Bringing in the sheaves. See Sowing in the morning	207
Child Jesus comes from heavenly height	283
Children of the heavenly King	10
Christian, dost thou see them	184
Christian, seek not yet repose	177

Come, let us all unite and sing	20
Come, my soul, thou must be waking	5
Come, Thou almighty King	9
Come unto me, ye weary	129
Come, ye thankful people, come	258
Consider the lilies, how stately they	266
Courage, brother, do not stumble	179
Crown Him with many crowns	102
Dare to be brave, dare to be true	191
Day by day we magnify Thee	22
Dear Jesus, ever at my side	122
Dear Lord, who once upon the lake	91
Dismiss me not Thy service, Lord	208
Eternal Father, strong to save	204
Every morning mercies new	18
Fairest Lord Jesus	273
Faint not, fear not, God is near thee	291
Faith of our fathers, living still	138
Far out on the desolate billow	35
Father, hear the prayer we offer	178
Father, hear Thy little children	156
Father, lead me day by day	150
Father, let me dedicate	256
Father, let Thy kingdom come	202

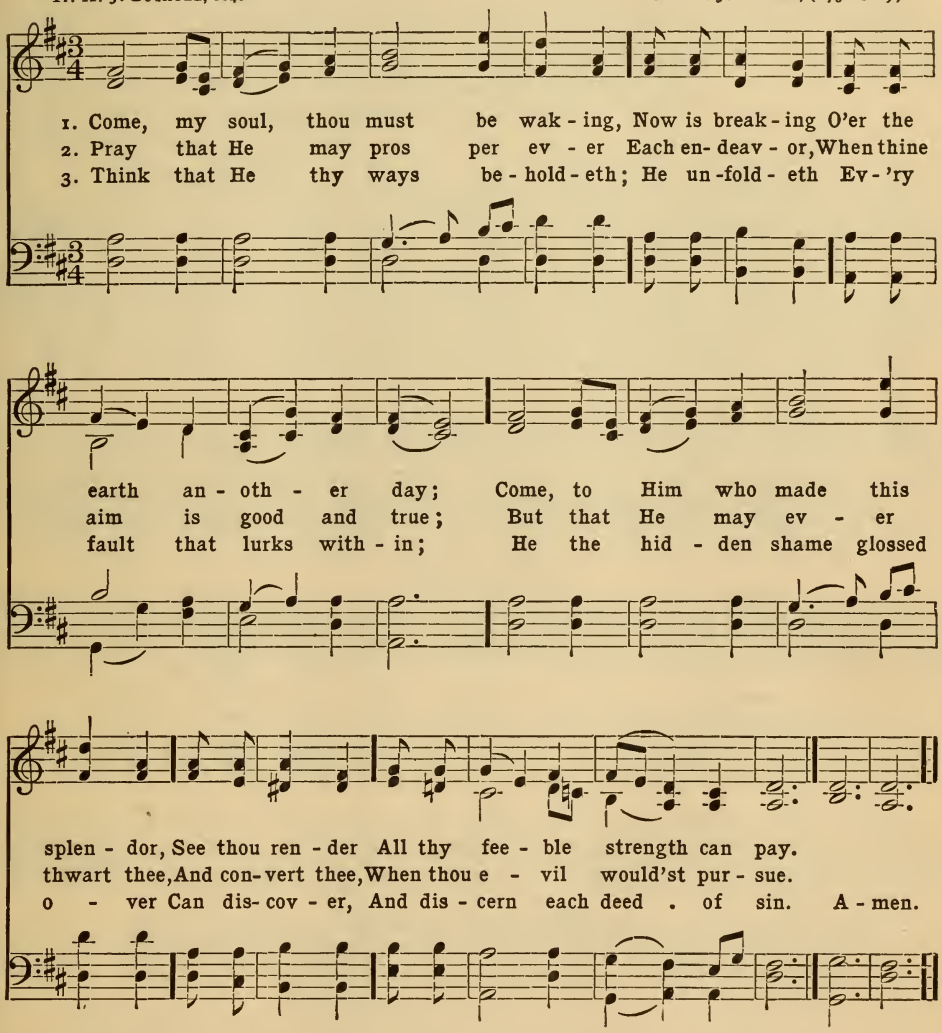
5 Honor, glory, might, and merit,
Thine shall ever be,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
Blessèd Trinity.
Of the best that Thou hast given
Earth and heaven
Render Thee.

Come, my soul, thou must be waking

"HAYDN"

F. R. L. von Canitz, 1699
Tr. H. J. Buckoll, 1848

Arr. fr. J. Haydn, (1732-1809)



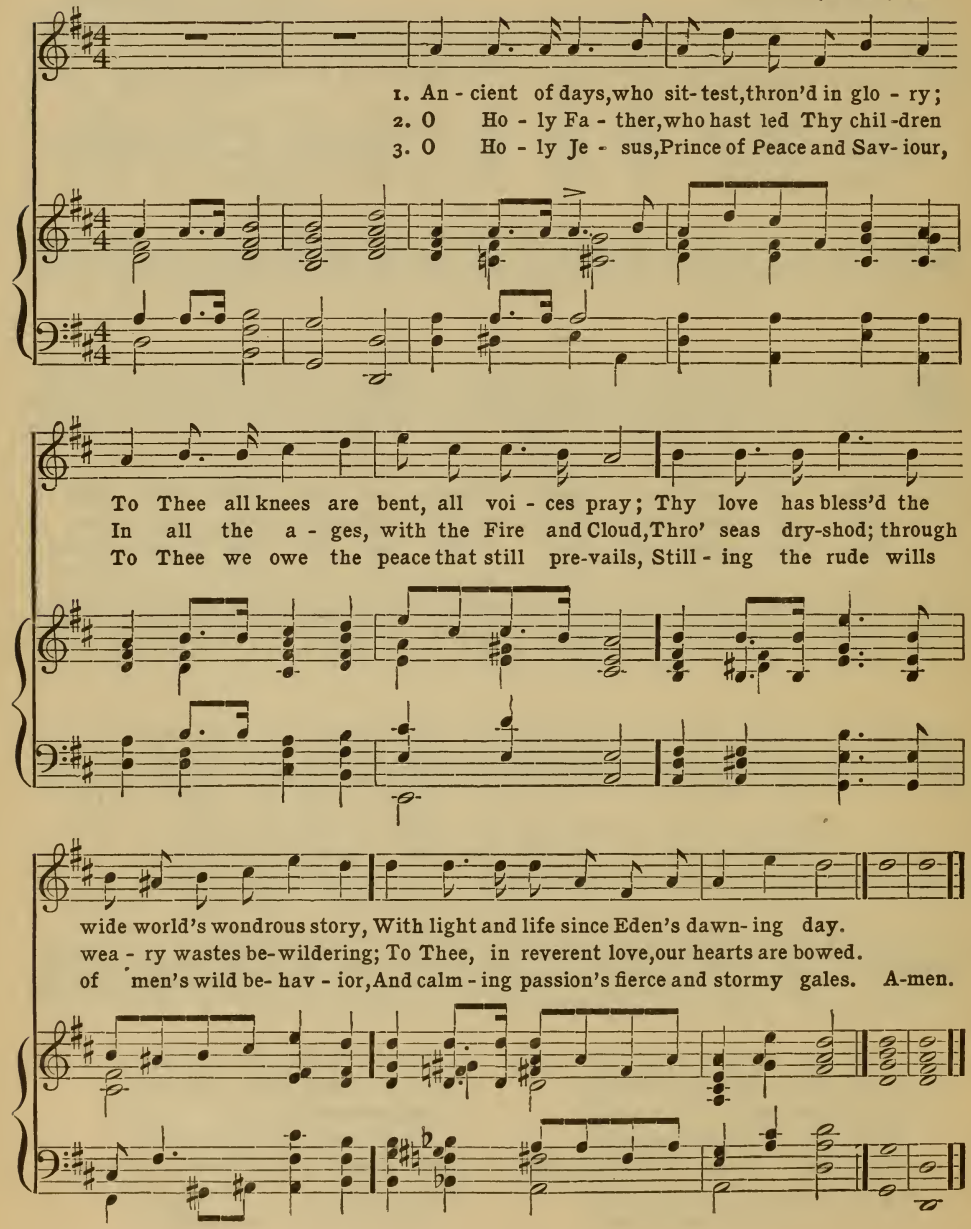
4 Mayest thou on life's last morrow,
Free from sorrow,
Pass away in slumber sweet;
And, released from death's dark sadness,
Rise in gladness,
That far brighter Sun to greet.

5 Only God's free gifts abuse not,
Light refuse not,
But His Spirit's voice obey;
Thou with Him shalt dwell, beholding
Light enfolding
All things in unclouded day.

6 Ancient of days, who sittest, thron'd in glory

"ANCIENT OF DAYS"

W. C. Doane — J. A. Jeffery, 1886



4 O Holy Ghost, the Lord and the Life-giver,
Thine is the quickening power that gives increase.
From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
Our plenty, wealth, prosperity, and peace.

5 O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring,
Praise we the goodness that doth crown our days;
Pray we, that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favor, kept to us always.

Oh, may we evermore,
In Jesus' holy presence
His blessèd name adore.
Upon His peaceful Sabbath,
Within His temple-walls—
Type of the stainless worship
In Zion's golden halls.

6 So that, in joy and gladness,
We reach that home at last,
When life's short week of sorrow
And sin and strife is past;
When angel-hands have gathered
The fair, ripe fruit for Thee,
O Father, Lord, Redeemer,
Most Holy Trinity.

Thy pard'ning grace, Thy quick'ning word,—
These prompt our song that God is good.

So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

4 O holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray,
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us to-day.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,

Come then, True and Faithful, now fulfill Thy word;
'Tis Thine own third morning: rise, O buried Lord. Ref.

6 Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan's chain,
All that now is fallen raise to life again;
Show Thy face in brightness, bid the nations see,
Bring again our daylight: day returns with Thee. Ref.

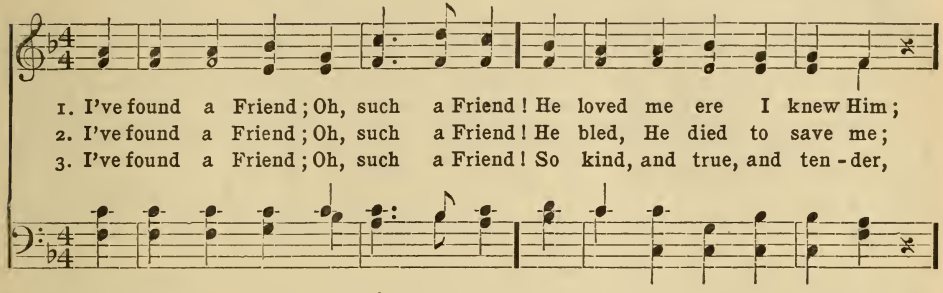
I've found a Friend

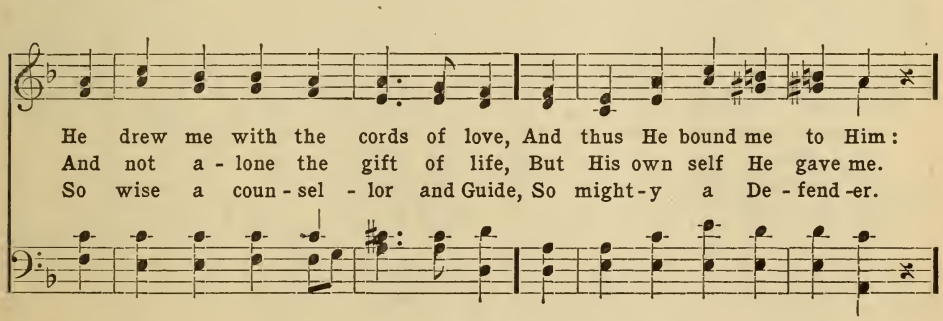
"CONSTANCE"

J. G. Small, 1886 — A. S. Sullivan, (1842-1900)

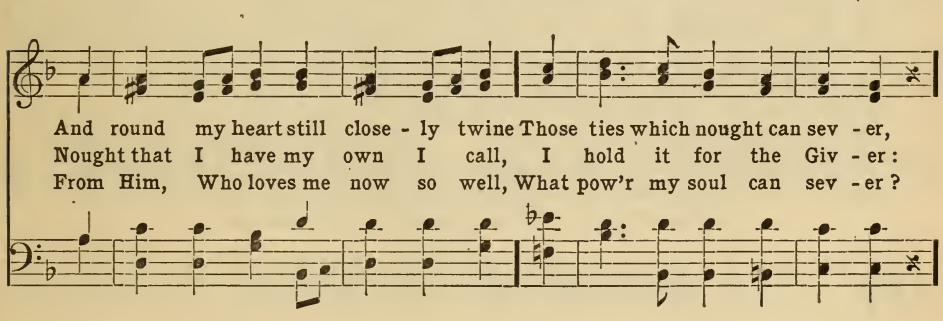
1. I've found a Friend; Oh, such a Friend! He loved me ere I knew Him;
2. I've found a Friend; Oh, such a Friend! He bled, He died to save me;
3. I've found a Friend; Oh, such a Friend! So kind, and true, and ten-der,



He drew me with the cords of love, And thus He bound me to Him:
And not a-lone the gift of life, But His own self He gave me.
So wise a coun-sel-lor and Guide, So might-y a De-fend-er.



And round my heart still close-ly twine Those ties which nought can sev-er,
Nought that I have my own I call, I hold it for the Giv-er:
From Him, Who loves me now so well, What pow'r my soul can sev-er?



For I am His, and He is mine, For-ev-er and for-ev-er.
My heart, my strength, my life, my all, Are His, and His for-ev-er.
Shall life?—or death?—or earth?—or hell? No; I am His for-ev-er. A-men.

1. I hear a voice, 'tis soft and sweet, It bids my sin-sick soul re-joice;
2. When wea-ry with my load of guilt, I'll not for-get that "Christ is all."
3. My soul is trou-bled like the sea, The surg-ing bil-lows roll a-round,

The same was heard in Sa-lem's street, And in the moun-tain's cool re-treat,
For me His pre-cious blood was spilt; He sweet-ly says, "Come if thou wilt;"
But He who calmed far Ga-li-lee Doth kind-ly say, "Peace be to thee;"

Refrain

My Sav-iour's voice. Sweet-er than chim-ing bells, Soft-er than eve-ning
How glad the call.
How blest the sound.

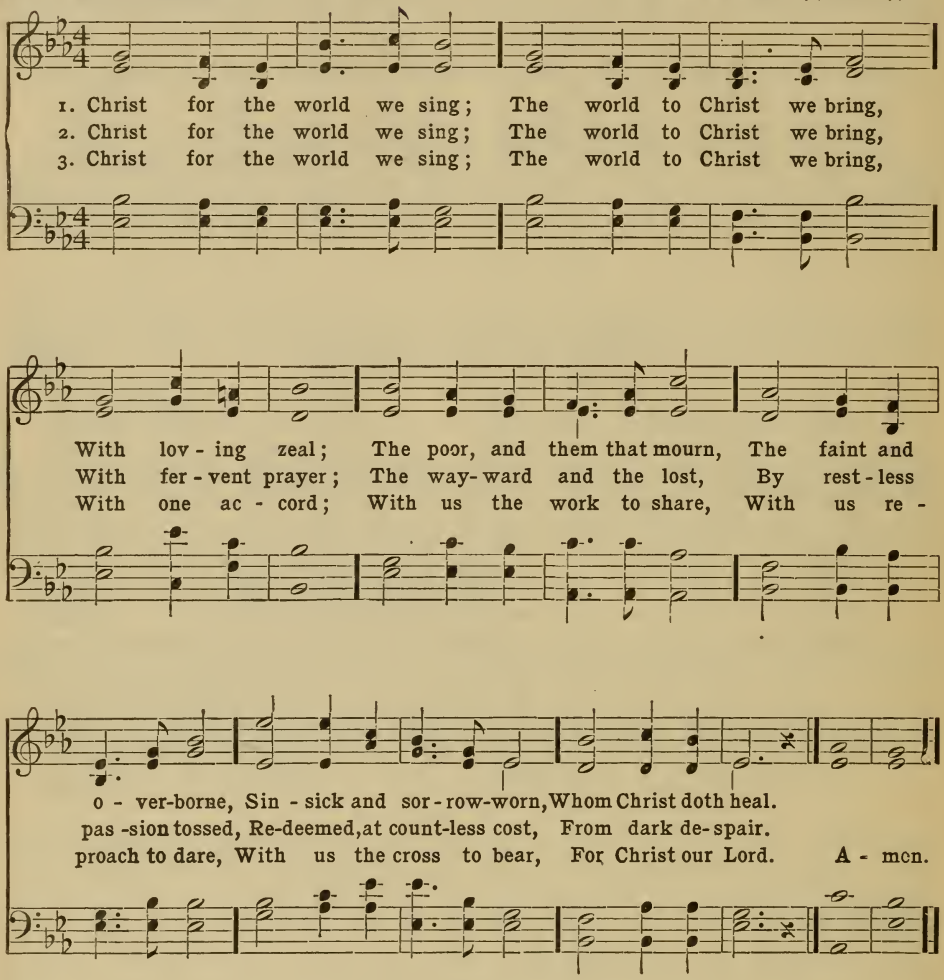
235 Christ for the world we sing

"CUTTING"

S. Wolcott, (1813-1886) W. F. Sherwin, (1826-1887)



4 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With joyful song;
The new-born souls, whose days,
Reclaimed from error's ways,
Inspired with hope and praise,
To Christ belong.

Our country's voice is pleading 236

5 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia!

6 The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest. Alleluia!

7 But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on His way. Alleluia!

8 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Alleluia.

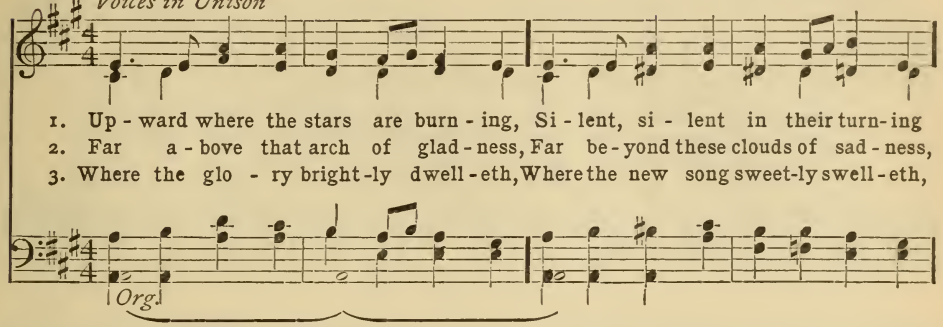
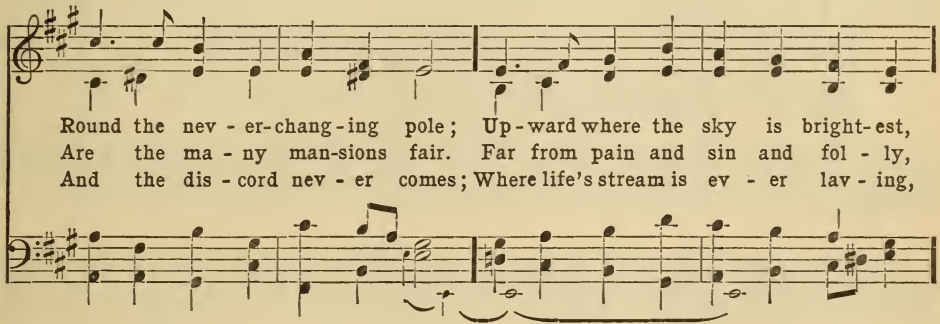
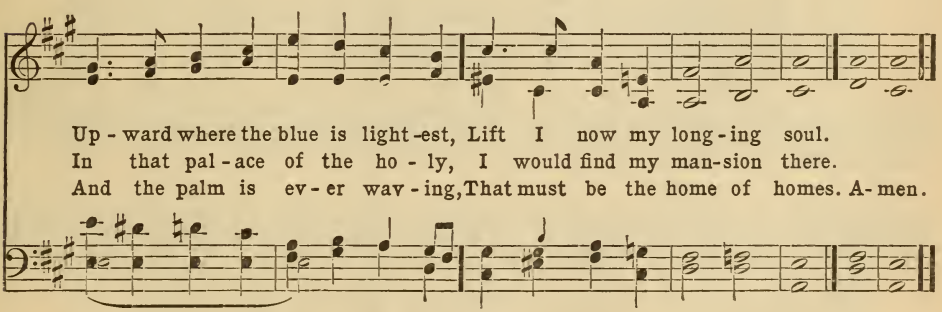
Voices in Unison







4 Where the Lamb on high is seated,
By ten thousand voices greeted,
Lord of lords, and King of kings.
Son of Man, they crown, they crown Him,
Son of God, they own, they own Him;
With His name the palace rings.

5 Blessing, honor, without measure,
Heavenly riches, earthly treasure,
Lay we at His blessed feet;
Poor the praise that now we render,
Loud shall be our voices yonder,
When before His throne we meet.

The Ten Commandments

GOD spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage

I. — Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II. — Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III. — Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. — Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V. — Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. — Thou shalt not kill.

VII. — Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. — Thou shalt not steal.

IX. — Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. — Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus Christ saith · Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The Apostles' Creed

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven; and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church; the Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness of sins; the Resurrection of the body; and the Life everlasting. Amen.

The Beatitudes

Leader— Blessed are the poor in spirit:
School— For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they that mourn:
For they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek:
For they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness:
For they shall be filled.
Blessed are the merciful:
For they shall obtain mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart:
For they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers:
For they shall b called the children of God.
Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake:
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

The Shepherd Psalm

Leader— The Lord is my shepherd:
School— I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
For Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A General Confession

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father; We have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

O GOD, who hast prepared for those who love thee such good things as pass man's understanding; Pour into our hearts such love toward thee, that we, loving thee above all things, may obtain thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, the strength of all those who put their trust in thee; Mercifully accept our prayers: and because through the weakness of our mortal nature, we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in keeping thy commandments we may please thee, both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright; Grant to us such strength and protection, as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A General Thanksgiving

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

A Collect for Peace

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

A Collect for Grace

O LORD, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; Defend us in the same with thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings, being ordered by thy governance, may be righteous in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRANT to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

School — The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right rejoicing the heart:

The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned:

In keeping them there is great reward.

To obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

Little children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and truth.

Teach me to do thy will;
For thou art my God:
Thy Spirit is good;
Lead me in the paths of uprightness.

Owe no man anything, save to love one another; for he that loveth his neighbor hath fulfilled the law.

Leader — If thou wilt enter into life keep the commandments.

School — He that keepeth the commandments keepeth his own soul.

He that doeth the will of God abideth forever.

Every one therefore that heareth these words of mine, and doeth them, shall be likened unto a wise man, who built his house upon the rock; and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the wind blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon the rock.

Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee the crown of life.

Hymn No. 38. Thou art my Shepherd

School — He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arms, and carry them in his bosom.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

Other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also must I bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

In peace will I both lay me down and sleep; for thou, Lord, alone makest me to dwell in safety.

Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Hymn No. 141. Nearer, my God, to Thee

Though like a wanderer,

God's Care for All

Leader — Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

School — Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

(For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

The Pilgrimage through the Desert

Leader — Marvelous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

School — He clave the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as a heap.

In the day-time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.

He rained down manna upon them to eat, and gave them food from heaven. He rained flesh upon them as the dust, and winged birds as the sand of the sea.

How oft did they rebel against him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert.

But he led them safely so that they were not afraid; he brought them unto his holy border, to this mountain land, which his right hand had gotten.

Hymn No. 237. Hark! hark, my soul

Of that new life when sin shall be no more.

Angels of Jesus, angels of light,

School — Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us.

To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Singing

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;
And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the gospel leads us home. CHORUS:

Leader — Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

School — And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Singing

Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea.
And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to thee. CHORUS:

Leader — Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock.

School — Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

Singing

Angels, sing on, your faithful watches keeping,
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love. CHORUS:

Leader — They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun beat upon them, nor any heat;

School — For the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne shall be their Shepherd, and guide them to fountains of living water.

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

The son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain;
His blood-red banner streams afar:
Who follows in his train?
Who best can drink his cup of woe,
Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears his cross below,

Lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are ripe already to harvest.

The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth laborers unto his harvest.

At the beginning of the twentieth century there are "nearly 6,000 principal mission stations where missionaries now reside, and over 22,000 outstations. Maps of all parts of the world are required to represent the location of these stations. At these centers, and from them as bases, over 16,000 missionaries are working and directing a campaign, the influences of which penetrate the heart of the great masses of the non-Christian peoples. About 1,500,000 are now gathered into the Christian churches." — (John R. Mott.)

"The great need of missions in this age is a revival, in the hearts of the Church, of that large and noble passion which may be called the patriotism of Christ's kingdom. The Vision

Leader — For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

School — So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord, when they hear the words of thy mouth. Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the Lord: for great is the glory of the Lord.

And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed

That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne, and the living creatures, and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; saying with a loud voice,

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying,

Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

The Magnificat

Leader — And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord.

School — And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden:

For, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy;

As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed forever.

The Angels and the Shepherds

The School — And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this is the sign unto you; Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

An Old Testament Vision Fulfilled

The School — For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever.

The Wise Men and the Star

Leader — Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying,

School — Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh.

Leader — In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

School — The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made.

In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

Hymn No. 68. O little town of Bethlehem

O little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep,
The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee to-night.

Responsive Reading

Leader — He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

School — He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name.

Singing

How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His Heaven.

No ear may hear His coming;
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

Leader — Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

School — Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

Singing

O holy Child of Bethlehem!
Descend to us, we pray,
Cast out our sin and enter in,
Be born in us to-day.
We hear the Christmas angels,
The great glad tidings tell,
O, come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel!

All — When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the Glory of the Father.

The Story

Leader — And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had brought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

School — And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

The Hope

Leader — But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

School — For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

All — But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Incentive

Leader — If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

School — That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

Leader — The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, the world and they that dwell therein.

School — For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

The Lord our God, he is God of gods, the Lord of Lords, the great God, the mighty and the terrible.

He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength, who alone stretcheth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea;

Who doeth great things past finding out, yea, marvelous things without number;

In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.

He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

He laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be moved forever.

He sendeth forth springs into the valleys, he watereth the mountains from his chambers.

He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of men.

He appointeth the moon for seasons; the sun knoweth his going down.

The voice of the Lord is powerful, the voice of the Lord is full of majesty; in his temple everything saith, glory!

Thanksgiving to the God of our Fathers

Leader — O God, we have heard with our ears; our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the days of old.

School — Marvelous things did he in the sight of their fathers, when they were but few in number.

He led forth his own people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

He increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their adversaries.

O Lord God of our fathers, prepare our hearts unto thee, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, throughout all generations.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of our fathers, from everlasting even to everlasting. And let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the Lord.

Forefathers' Hymn. No. 250. God of our fathers, whose almighty hand (standing)

The Psalmist's Testimony

Leader — If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, when men rose up against us; then they had swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled against us.

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people. Happy is that people whose God is the Lord.

Hymn No. 252. Battle Hymn of the Republic

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord:
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of his terrible swift sword.
His truth is marching on.

CHORUS —Glory, glory hallelujah.

Words of Benjamin Franklin

The School — I have lived, sir, a long time; and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth, — that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice, is it possible that an empire can rise without his aid? We have been assured, sir, in the sacred writings that — "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it." I firmly believe this.

Singing

I have seen him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read his righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps.
His day is marching on. — CHORUS:

Pledge of Loyalty

Leader — " Our country does not ask us to die for her only, she asks us to live and so to act that her government may be pure, her officers honest, and every corner of her territory a place fit to grow the best men and women who shall rule over her."

School — " God hath made of one blood all nations of men, and we are his children, brothers and sisters all. We are citizens of these United States and we believe our flag stands for self-sacrifice for the good of the people."

Singing

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the seas;
With a glory in his bosom that transfigures you and me:
As he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free:
While God is marching on. — CHORUS:

Lincoln's Speech at Gettysburg

Leader — Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

School — Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live.

It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense; we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground.

The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract.

The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here.

It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced.

It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us: that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion:

All — That we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.
